About the Gift & Memorial Program

Thank you for your interest in the Wamego Public Library's Gift and Memorial Program

Celebrate a birthday or anniversary, recognize the graduate, show appreciation for a retiree, or give a memorial that will last longer than flowers – all through the library's Gift & Memorial Program. It's easy, simple to do, and your donation is tax deductible.

While the Library does not accept the donation of actual material as part of this program, your financial contribution may be directed toward specific types of collections or favorite subject areas.

The library staff can supply, upon request, suggestions of needed materials for consideration by the donor.

Average cost of new materials:

Fiction Book: $10-$20

Non-Fiction Book: $25-$35

Large Print Book: $30

Audio Book: $35-$55

DVD: $10-$20

Children's Picture Book: $10-$20

Memorial Donation Policy

Memorial donations are accepted to purchase new items for the Wamego Public Library. While the Library will not accept the donation of books, materials, or objects to be used as memorials, financial contributions may be directed toward specific types of collections or favorite subject areas. The library staff can supply, upon request, suggestions of needed materials for consideration by the donor.

All gifts and materials become the property of the Wamego Public Library and the library reserves the right to dispose of them as it deems appropriate. Donated materials are subject to the same withdrawal criteria of all other library materials; even if they have bookplates or plaques.
